SCHENECTADY STRIKE QUIET. General Electric Co. May Shut Down Its Plant.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Oct. 21 .- The report that State militia might be called on to protect those who wished to again take up their duties had its effect today upon the 13,000 strikers of the Gen-eral Electric Company. No disorder took place and a path twenty-five feet wide was maintained to the entrance of the plant. Pickets walked beside the men and endeavored to persuade them from returning, but in no case did they block

Alden and Charles D. Mower, who served as the crew of the Josephine. It is ex-pected that there will be nearly 190 yachtsmen at the dinner.

It is practically certain that the great lake yachtsmen will challenge for these two cups. Already they have talked things over and it is very possible that a new yacht will be built. The East and West cup, as its name signifies, is for yachts representing the East and West. The Manhasset Bay Challenge Cup is practically an open race in that after a challenge has been accepted after a challenge has been accepted other clubs may name representatives to take part in the series of races. Eastern yacht clubs, those sailing in waters the other side of Cape Cod, have several yachts eligible for this series sail for the cup.
